1. The Financial Services Authority (FSA)

The FSA is the independent watchdog that regulates financial services. This document has been designed by the FSA to be given to consumers considering buying certain financial products. You need to read this important document. It explains the service you are being offered and how you will pay for it.

2. Whose products do we offer?

Investment

- We offer products from the whole market.
- We only offer products from a limited number of companies
- We only offer products from a single group of companies.

Insurance

- We offer products from a range of insurers for Life, Critical Illness, Permanent Health and Private Medical Insurance
- We only offer products from a limited number of insurers
- We only offer products from a single insurer

Mortgages

- We offer mortgages from the whole market.
 - We only offer mortgages from a limited number of lenders.
 - We only offer mortgages from a single lender

3. Which service will we provide you with?

Investment

- We will advise and make a recommendation for you after we have assessed your needs.
 - You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us. We may ask some questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on. You will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed.
 - We will provide basic advice on a limited range of stakeholder products and in order to do this we will ask some questions about your income, savings and other circumstances but we will not:
 - Conduct a full assessment of your needs;
 - Offer advice on whether a non-stakeholder product may be more suitable

Insurance

- We will advise and make a recommendation for you after we have assessed your needs.
You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us for non-investment insurance contracts
- We may ask some questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on. You will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed

Mortgages

- We will advise and make a recommendation for you after we have assessed your needs.
You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us. We may ask some questions to narrow down the selection of products that we will provide details on. You will then need to make your own choice about how to proceed.

4. What will you have to pay us for our services?

Investment

We will discuss your payment options with you and answer any questions you have. We will not charge you until we have agreed with you how we are to be paid.

All initial discussions are free and you have the choice as to whether to pay a fee of for us to receive commission from the product provider.

Paying by fee. Whether you buy a product or not, you will pay us a fee for our advice and services, which will become payable on completion of our work. If we also received commission from the product provider when you buy a product, we will pass on the full value of that commission to you in one or more ways. For example, we could reduce our fee; or reduce your product charges; or increase your investment amount; or refund the commission to you.

Hourly Rate. We will confirm the rate we will charge in writing before beginning work. Our typical charges are:

Director £ 150 per hour
Administrator £50 per hour

We will tell you if you have to pay VAT.

Fees do not currently attract VAT, we will advise you if this changes.

Lump Sum. We will confirm what we will charge you in writing before beginning work. Our typical charges are:

Investments up to £100,000 3%
Investments above £100,000 3%, although this would normally be reduced for larger cases.

We will tell you if you have to pay VAT.

Fees do not currently attract VAT, we will advise you if this changes.

Reviews. We will confirm what we will charge you in writing before beginning work. Our typical charges are:

Initial review: £500

Annual review: £500

We will tell you if you have to pay VAT.

Fees do not currently attract VAT, we will advise you if this changes.

You may ask us for an estimate of how much in total we might charge. You may also ask us not to exceed a given amount without checking with you first.

Paying by commission (through product charges). If you buy a financial product, we will normally receive commission on the sale from the product provider. Although you pay nothing to us up front, that does not mean that our service is free. You still pay us indirectly through product charges. Product charges pay for the product provider's own costs and any commission. These charges reduce the amount left for investment. If you buy direct, the product charges could be the same as when buying through an adviser, or they could be higher or lower.

The amount of commission we receive will vary depending on the amount you invest and (sometimes) how long you invest or your age.

If you invest a lump sum of £7200 in an individual savings account (ISA) we would receive commission of 3% of the amount invested (£216) and 0.5% of the value of the fund (roughly £36 every year).

If you invest a lump sum of £50000 in an Investment Bond we would receive commission of 3% of the amount invested (£1500) and 0.5% of the value of the fund (roughly £250 every year).

If you pay £100 a month into a personal pension (with a term of 25 years) then we would received commission of £300.

If you pay £50 a month towards a whole of life policy, then we would receive £390.

We will tell you how much the commission will be before you complete an investment, but you may ask for this information earlier.

Paying by a combination of fee and commission (through product charges). We will charge you a combination of fees and commission. The actual amounts will depend on the service provided to you, but will be in line with the arrangements set out in the sections headed 'Paying by fee' and 'Paying by commission (through product charges)'.

Other benefits we may receive

We may occasionally receive annual training from product providers.

Insurance

A fee of £1,000, of which £250 is payable with the application. This will be refunded if we are unable to provide the relevant cover for Life, Critical Illness, Permanent Health or Private Medical Insurance.

- No fee, we will receive a commission from the product provider.

You will receive a quotation, which will tell you about any other fees relating to any particular insurance policy.

Mortgages

- No fee. We will be paid by commission from the lender/company.
- A fee of £250 payable at application for the research and administrative work and a further fee at completion of £50. We will refund to you any commission we receive from the mortgage lender.
- A combination of fee and commission. A fee of £250 is payable at application. We will also receive commission from the mortgage lender.

You will receive a key facts illustration when considering a particular mortgage, which will tell you about any fees relating to it.

Refund of fees

If we charge you a fee, and your mortgage does not go ahead, you will receive:

- A full refund for example, where the lender/company rejects your application.
- Option 3 above. A refund of £125 for example, if your application falls through.
- Option 2 above. No refund for example, if you decide not to proceed.

Insurance

Insurance advising and arranging is covered for 90% of the claim, without any upper limit.

Mortgages

Mortgage advising and arranging is covered up to a maximum limit of £50,000.

Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS.

Terms of business

Commencement date

These terms of business come into effect on the date you receive them from us.

How we act for you

We can act for you if you live in the UK. There may be restrictions on how we can advise you if any of the following apply:

- You don't live in the UK
- You are currently staying in the UK, but normally live abroad
- You are currently staying in the UK and plan to move abroad or return to another country

Please ask us for details if you think this may apply to you.

The FSA requires us to classify our clients as either 'retail' (personal) or 'professional' (business). We classify all our customers as 'retail' so that you get the highest level of consumer protection and in some cases, access to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

We will provide our services to you using reasonable care and skill. There may be circumstances where you ask us to provide specialist advice, which we are not allowed to give. We are not able to advise you on the following types of investments: [you can use this section to list the types of investment you would not be allowed to advise on].

We will let you know if this list changes. Please ask us if you need any information about what we are able to advise you about.

We can, however refer you to someone who can advise you in areas we cannot. They may pay us a fee or some other benefit for us introducing you to them as a customer; if this happens, we will tell you in writing.

You should receive a separate agreement from them explaining what services they will provide to you; they may be other financial advisers, solicitors or accountants. Any persons to whom we refer you to will take responsibility for the advice they give to you.

We can't give you legal advice, but we will point out and explain to you what the payments terms, exit charges, exclusions and other key terms are for any product you buy using our services.

We will communicate with you orally and in writing. We prefer our clients to give us instructions in writing to avoid possible disputes. If we accept oral instructions from you, we will confirm them in writing to you. Any advice we give you will normally be in writing, but if given orally, we will record it on our files.

We may give you advice about policies or investments, which you may (for a short period) be able to cancel. We will advise you if you have a right to cancel any policy or investment on which we have advised you.

When we advise on or arrange certain types of investment products for you, we have to make sure that we get the best possible result for you, as a personal client. We call this 'best execution'. We will give you a copy of our best execution policy if you ask for it.

When we arrange investments for you we will register these in your name unless otherwise agreed in writing. Additionally, we will ensure you receive either a contract note, documents of title or certificates evidencing title. All such paperwork will be forwarded to you by post as soon as possible after we receive them. Where a number of documents relating to a series of transactions are involved, the documents will normally be retained until the series is complete.

Conflicts of interest

Occasionally, we or one of our customers might have some type of interest in business that we are carrying out for you. This is called a 'conflict of interest'. If and when we become aware of a conflict of interest, we will tell you before we carry out any business for you and get your consent before we continue advising you. On occasion we may have to cease acting for you, but we will help you find advice from elsewhere, if you want us to.

We are not allowed to be your trustees or to put your assets in any trust, nominee account, fund or pension scheme in which we have a material interest. You may not appoint us as an executor of your will.

Indirect benefits

We may receive non-monetary benefits from product providers. We will tell you before the transaction if we will receive some form of benefit that is above the level we have set as 'reasonable'.

Investment risk

All investments carry a degree of financial risk that will tend to increase in proportion to the potential rate of return on the investments. The value of some may fall as well as rise. Before entering into any investment agreement we will explain the risk, but you must tell us if you do not understand our explanation of the risk, or if you do not wish to accept that level of risk.

How we charge you for our services

Full descriptions of the payment options we offer are included in section 4 of the Keyfacts document.

If we charge you fees, we may increase our rates in the future. We will not do so unreasonably, and any increase will not exceed the retail price index plus 5% in any one year. We will tell you, in writing, one month in advance of any changes to our fees. If you do not agree to the increase, you or we may end this agreement. Settlement of our invoices is due within 30 days and we reserve the right to charge reasonable interest on overdue payments. Interest will be chargeable on a daily basis. We reserve the right to discontinue work on all current matters if any bill is not settled promptly.

We may also charge you for any disbursements we have agreed to pay on your behalf. We will notify you of these in writing, if they apply.

As part of this agreement we will provide you with our services for as long as you ask us to. If you decide to end this agreement and have paid fees in advance for future advice, we will refund a reasonable amount of those fees.

Client money

We never hold client money.

- 'Client money' is money that we receive and hold on your behalf. This can be in any currency, cash, a cheque or money in a bank account.

You must not:

- Make a cheque payable to us (unless it is for payment of fees due to us); or

- Give us a blank cheque; or
- Give us cash (unless it is for payment of fees due to us).

The following is not client money:

- Crossed cheques made payable to someone else, which you give to us to forward to them on your behalf;
- A cheque made payable to us as payment for our services to you. If we have agreed to be paid fees for our services, we may ask for the non-refundable portion of it ahead of delivering the service to you.

If you are uncertain about any of the above, please ask us.

Handling assets owned by you

We can temporarily hold documents that evidence your ownership of assets, but you must make sure you have copies of them. We will return originals to you after using them to provide our services to you.

When we arrange investments for you, we will register these in your name. We will also make sure you receive either a contract note, documents of title, or certificates confirming that you own those investments. This paperwork will be sent to you by post as soon as possible after we receive it. If we are arranging a series of transactions on your behalf, we will normally keep all the documents until those transactions have been completed.

You must never transfer ownership of any assets to us or to any company in which we have a controlling interest.

Data protection

We have issued you with a Data Protection Statement setting out how we collect and use data about you.

Communications

If we need to contact you, we can either write to you or phone you. Please let us know which you prefer and if you want us to email or fax you. If you verbally ask us to do something for you, we will confirm this to you in writing to ensure we have understood your instructions correctly. If we give you advice we will normally confirm it to you in writing.

Provision of information by you

We seek to ensure that any personal information we hold about you should remain accurate and up to date; as this could affect the advice we give you. Therefore, please let us know if there are any significant changes to your personal details, when they occur.

If we ask you to fill out any forms or documents, you must do this promptly, accurately and honestly. You may be committing a criminal offence by completing a form with information that is not accurate or truthful. We will not be liable to you if you suffer financially because you have not completed a form or document truthfully or accurately. As and when requested you must provide instructions to us in a timely and clear manner during the course of your work.

*When we first meet, we will agree the services we will provide to you. If we agree to provide you with ongoing reviews, we will regularly check that the information we hold on you is correct. You must tell us if we have got anything wrong.

Ending this agreement

We may decide to stop acting for you at any time; if we do so we will write to you to confirm this. You can ask us to stop acting for you at any time, but you must do so in writing. We will keep a copy of this agreement on our files so that we have a copy of the terms on which we acted for you. Notices given by you under this agreement must be sent in writing by post. Notices will be treated as having been received by us on the second business day after you posted the notice to us.

We will have no authority to act for you after this agreement has ended. If the agreement is ended while we are providing services to you, we will finish providing the agreed services unless you ask us not to. You will have to pay any outstanding fees for our services even if this agreement has ended. Any fees outstanding at the date of termination will be due within 30 days of the termination date.

Law

These terms of business will be interpreted and construed in accordance with English law and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts, except if your address is in Scotland, when the courts of Scotland shall have non-exclusive jurisdiction.
